

A public letter to Anna Maria Riezinger – Fiduciary of The United States of America, unincorporated.

State of mind

Jurisdiction: A man in the divine one.

Objective: A political love letter, a validation process to find and build alliances with those involved in bringing back the universal harmony and justice in this world now.

To solve: The auto-management of our time (creative potential), our money (energy), our heritage (memory) and our direct access to the universal (source) knowledge of what is.

The magic trick used: Hypnosis to make the cause of corruption or lies unseen or acceptable.

Example: At the beginning of the movie « Monsters Inc. » from Pixar, of course people do not agree with the fact that the « Monsters » enter at night in the children's bedroom to frighten them and drain their vital energy for survival or electrification of their world.

But at the end of the movie, when they leave the cinema, they are smiling and happy. The same « Monsters » have done a big political change to now act lovely and friendly with kids; they don't use « fear » anymore but « laugh » instead. It's the beginning of the « Golden Age » of their commerce. Love used as a trick.

Nevertheless, the crime remains the same at the end. Those « Monsters » are still doing the forbidden act of appearing suddenly at night in the bedroom of a child to drain his energy, an obvious intrusion of private space, an abuse that leads to the market of trauma. But instead of being chase for it, now people agree and defend them, misled by the screen of a big political scheme of a superficial change from « fear » to « laugh », but keeping the same political system or factories in charge under a new brand.

By the controllers: Those who constantly debate opinions as a fact, using « I think » instead of « I know » and not able to prove it, to convince you or them that you are wrong or right by saying to you whatever you want to hear and distract you from the realisation that they are playing by the same rules, the same psychology, the same business as usual to keep you inside their box.

With the will: To « know » (taking responsibility in the « now »; humble and sovereignty) instead of to « be lieve » (allowing doubts and illusions in the « be alive »; pride and enslavement). In another words, to know when, why and what you don't know or if you prefer, when, why and what you believe.

Of the act: I cannot build my inner peace in my new « aquariu(s) or (m) » something garden abundance if I don't know what it means and who still sprays stuffs in my sky to befog the sun light it needs and do nothing about it. I will become an accomplice, an honest fraud. And forcing someone to commit a crime against himself is also a crime. So, to make it stop, the powerless told to the most powerful unimaginable and imaginable source of the universe to back him up by first looking at his heart if its flame light it up and let anyone know if there is any sort of treachery in my intentions, my words and my actions. But be aware, I will demand the same and reciprocal public exposition to know just; especially in the case of my legitimed self-defence. No more one-way riddle channelling communication for the abduction of Helen of Troy to bring wars or peace to my mankind because of a childish beauty contest between seemingly gods and goddess.

Anna,

Bien le Bon Jour,

First of all, thanks for being that powerful voice to bring and explain hidden but important things; your work and actions are amazing. And to anyone who read this letter, don't be surprised at the unusual way I formulate my sentences and break the English charm, my mother language is French Armorican... if you transliterate Armorican for American accept that America is also the continent where I'm living on.

But it's worth the investigation if we observed that « Acadians » and French « Canadians » peoples, especially in the « Province of Quebec », the land and soil where I live, are the ones who still speak the language of the ancient clans of Armorica in Brittany (France) that, according to Anna, came a long time ago to trade and forge blood ties with peoples of the different advanced autochthon nations already here.

My own lineage shows traces of this miscegenation. My mother, who volunteers in a genealogical center in Chicoutimi, has done the work herself. She recorded that in 1776; hopefully by love, my French-Ilnu great grandmother married my Scottish great grandfather enlisted in the British Army because of this big political world reset going on at the time; as it is written in the keeping books but intensely questioned with a new perspective in the past few years.

Also, the recent political history of the « Province of Quebec » (since 1763) could be depicted as this « Gallic Village » trying to resist « Cesar » and the « Anglo-Roman » surroundings to preserve its language and customs. In that process, without knowing collectively what it really meant in terms of international laws and jurisdictions and still not, two referendums in the 80's and 90's of the twentieth century to become a « Sovereign Nation » were lost or the results manipulated. But the more important terms were... what are we... doing here... not knowing... and not laughing anymore?

In fact, the motivation was more about this persistent and strong feeling that something doesn't work for us here. And this feeling also grows in the rest of the country as we can see at the moment in the « Province of Alberta »; history repeats itself. Again, this common impression shared by all mankind which brings us to the current global political events and to this letter.

More than our body origin and his shade, what is the mankind project? Is it to become the cure for the cosmic corruption that occurred between the light and the dark of powers that don't want to see the success of it because the ring they bear at their finger will not make them invisible anymore for doing it? Is it that simple? Is it this immune system that they want to keep asleep, not involve in his own defense?

But after these high peaks of social emotions, we ceased trying to acknowledge the whole picture correctly and the incoherence, inaccuracy and blurriness behind our identity and history¹; plunged instead in apathy, nurtured by mediocrity transform into popularity and fake debates for division purpose, serving the corrupted powers in place, their frauds and their occultism. But that, I realised it gradually in my day-to-day life², like everyone else who paid a little bit attention to.

¹It makes no sense that Chicago was uplifted in the nineteenth century to build its sewers. And I know without a doubt, like those warriors who made me aware of it, that our history is an intentional cover up, a lie to suit the human identity crisis associated with it. First-hand knowledge, direct experience with the sewers (<https://no-thingman.com/dossier/vdm#grief-docs>) of the « Corporation of the City of Montreal ». So it is world wide and I see it every where now, the same amazing hypnosis to mask the evident existence of ancient buildings and infrastructures that doesn't fit the time line proposed or the remains of the destructions of many of them buried or left behind as though a mud flood had passed (<https://no-thingman.com/synth%C3%A8se#canal>).

The political powers in place insist more and more systematically on the words « diversity » and « tolerance » to push their need of mixing all ingredients together at the same time in their foreign water-nation; making you publicly guilty if you dare contradict them by simply remarking that it could only produce in that way « homogenization » and « dissolution ». Worst if you explain that this is the reason why only those who accept to suck their boat's rudders will become a captain of the « Public Ships » they took control of and why they will be the first to leave with their bonus and pay-check when the storm they headed the boat towards will be about to rise and cause the shipwreck.

And all of that to mask their subtle invasion to access, control and benefit from all homeland's resources by « trans-gendering » the identity of the people with a warehouse certificate at birth to make them act without knowledge as a living-dead, a vessel, a commodity which taxes and duties can be levied on to pay for government services already credited, becoming the « Voters » and the « Consumers » of a foreign « Bowl Fish Company » worshipping « Dagon » in the commercial maritime admiralty corporation's world, laws, citizenry and vocabulary.

By this scheme, every one since their birth thought that it was normal to live that way, not realising that their right and freedom to walk their own land as a living man or woman was exchange without their consent for a liberty, a privilege, a permission, a driver licence given by a captain to his sailor with now a dime to pay for doing it:

But each time, the question was almost, do you want to separate the « Quebec » from the rest of « Canada »? Yes and no, could you be more precise please? The « Government of Canada » D.U.N.S. 241015486 and the « Gouvernement de la Province de Québec » D.U.N.S. 209087188, also strangely named the « Régie du Bâtiment du Québec³ »? Are you sure? I heard nothing in the debates about that at the time; but not in age to vote anyway.

To begin with, what is D.U.N.S? How and when these two register companies were initially merged? And more important, how could they pretend to be governments? Something was missing in my school teachings. Maybe some thrive from my stupidity and ignorance. In that case, taking control of the science expertise for teachings (universities); for thinkings (medias) and for public subventions (publics works contractors) will be logical to stay in business.

My own life experiences⁴ correlated that affirmation and like so many, the conclusion culminated in 2020 with the « DIVOC-19 » inverted cult propaganda:

“Listen to « The Science » and for your « shot » of being the social media morality employee of the month, we will give you a free hot-dog and a good review of the fake peers who don’t want to lose their « facts-checking » funding coming from those who sell these « shots ».”

But why a company, a government or someone would do that? Is it so hard to figure it out, really? Every one knows a simple answer; no need of an angel or a demon to tell you. The first difficulty is to acknowledge your own involvement in it or not; and maybe after that, acknowledge that angels and demons are literally a part of it too. The second difficulty, do something about it.

Why not letting John M’Gregor, a loyal « Esquire », « Subject » of « Sire » (and not « Sir ») his « Majesty » William the Fourth, give us the explanation in 1832; in the second edition of his report titled British America⁵, volume 1, page 1 & 2:

“The history of the world does not afford an epoch so gloriously important as the discovery of America by Columbus in 1492.”

Remark: Discovery, really? So many peoples were already there with so many nations; and even my old history school books said that some Vikings had been trading with them for a very long time. But like I mention before, I personally validate the inaccuracy of the history timeline⁶, part of the same fraud; so, I have no trust left in any form of official authority related to it and everything is on the table now for me; particularly when you realise that a previous technologically advanced civilisation was here.

“It created, as is well known, an era that gave a new and adventurous direction to the ambition of European nations; and, while the consequent passion of enterprise sent bold and resolute spirits to the vast regions of the New World, fresh discoveries enriched the sciences; and from that period geography, astronomy, and navigation became more satisfactorily known.”

Remark: And who is behind the ambition of European nations? Wait for it. And just like that, appears the narrative about getting better maps that will bring an historical change from an ancient « plan_net » world to the « sciences » spinning «Baal» cult. So, what is the real cosmology finally? A clock simulation?

“This magnificent hemisphere, possessing all the climates under heaven, fertile soils, precious minerals, forests of the most valuable timber; and inhabited by a bold and fierce race, unknown to and differing in colour from the people of the previously ascertained world ; and abounding in multitudes of known and unknown varieties of wild animals, was to be explored, the natives exterminated or subdued, and the discovered countries to be added to the dominions of European nations that sent forth men to discover and conquer them.”

Remark: What kind of beings talks like that with this attitude of superiority? The intention and the psychology couldn't be more explicit, conquer thru murder or submission. What about these same European dominion powers nowadays, the « John Lackland Nobility », are they still active? And what if you're still a part of the bold and fierce race they also describe in their texts as the "Gentile," the "Savage," the "Infidel," the "Unvaccinated," that wants to put in their ass their false ass-essment bills in commerce to take possession of people's lands? Are they still trying to eliminate us?

“Of all the various principles on which right of soil has been founded, there is none superior to immemorial occupancy. The right of the Indians to the country they inhabited was founded in nature. Their tenure was the free and bounteous gift of Heaven, which no man had a right to question, or any nation a legal or equitable pretence to destroy.”

Remark: The right of soil was thus known in 1832 and founded in nature and Heaven. It is not clear, however, which « Indians » he is referring to; those already conquered in « India » with whom the « East India Company » and the « Great Britain Corporation » was dealing with at that time? But it seems clear that you cannot, under the pretext of maritime or territorial trade, question our natural political status as an indigenous or native « person » in our lands, whatever the definition you give to that word; which is exactly the fraud that has been committed and referred here.

“The dark superstition of the times regarded the Deity as the partial God of Christians. The Spaniards made this doctrine, under the sanction of the pope, their measure of right, in wresting the rich countries of South America, and the Island of Cuba, from the natives. Even our Queen Elizabeth and King James, although they denied the authority of the pope, yet, from the principle of avarice, and the passion of ambition, they adopted the fanciful distinction of Christian and heathen right, so far as to make it the measure of justice by which they claimed the countries discovered by their subjects.”

Remark: Here some of the European powers involved with the same old conflictual narrative we hear on the news today. Beware of this technique of using someone else's "confession," whatever it may be, to shift the blame for one's own actions — the infamous accusatory reversal often linked to a false flag operation. The cancer of all religions is to force their role as intermediaries with the divine to deprive someone of his natural authority to access it.

And talking about cancer; look at the page 89 (8+9 = 17) in the internet version of the same book⁷, it is said that the nuns and catholic clergy already have a cure that never fails; a vegetable plaster that they don't want to reveal the secret because natural treatment cannot be patent. We are not talking about a recent declassified document of the « CIA » to mask the Rife machine, the Med bed or the parasitic forms of the cancer. How holy or friendly is it?

Maybe the ends justify the means for them to; when you know that the sick business of sickness most of the time bring back the thought of « God » in the mind of the sick, it certainly worth a dime or two to pray in a « Church » for a miraculous healing or to build a pharmaceutical (by etymology, a lease each month for drugs and poisons) company. This world of eternal reliance or addiction in all forms. You got the picture right? Again, a very clear summary of how our world were settled along with the psychology and the business values promoted.

“Europeans subdued, with little difficulty, tribes, however numerous, who were ignorant of the use of firearms, or scientific warfare, and who regarded their invaders as supernatural spirits sent down by the gods of thunder. Before they discovered the fatal delusion, the critical period for defending their country had passed; nor did they ascertain that white men were vulnerable, until they became their conquerors.”

Remark: By now, fairy tales sound more realistic than that; something is missing. A bit like the fabulous way Quebec was taken in 1763 or the story of George Washington crossing the Delaware. But we can look at it with less fantasy, the people of those lands were seduced and gave their trust until the treason revealed itself. The criminal or the deceiver minds in action, the same old story; read « The Lord's of the rings » or « The Silmarillion » to see how the corruption with lies were used by « Sauron » or « Morgoth ».

But maybe it is to old English literature. Maybe we need a more fantastic modern one to express it. In that case, here's the synopsis: the « Vatican » and the « British Crown » conspire against us, the living beings; by pretending they have the right to split and put our souls in different « Horcrux » or « Corpses » to possess it. It begins with our « Birth Certificate » to enclose our mind in the commercial « Muggle » category to prevent us from accessing the magic they are using in their « Wizards » or « Lizards » world we don't care about.

⁷ <https://books.google.ca/books?id=aKgNAAAQAAJ&printsec=frontcover#v=onepage&q&f=false>

In my case, it was a giant « Ha-Grid Wakening » who took is time to appear simultaneously all around the world and challenge me in a strange way at my 40th birthday to teach me that it was a deliberate mistake made at the warehouse to hide me, supposedly for my own sake and spiritual growth because Earth was a « Pharm » or a « Farm » put in quarantine when the four schools for economics and laws of the « Hog Warts City of London » took control of it.

There, depending on the fraternity color hat you were sorted, occult knowledges were taught about managing « Central Banks », « Public Trusts » and « Commerce » with a wand made from a « Holy-wood » used to « Tell-a-vision » with all the same deceiving tricks and all the same « Shapeshifting Actors » who repeat the same incantations, words and symbolisms in politics, tribunals, hospitals, news, schools, sports and religions systems to make us work for them by manipulating the mind and the heart of people like me or you, the gentle « Muggle »; of course if you put yourself in that category and don't bother about « Witches » part of the cosmos you come from or how powerful you are or not.

Do you need a quick and undeniable proof of it like me? Then click on the following link <https://no-thingman.com/politique#fraude> if you are brave enough. Even if it is written in French and in small characters in that document about my student loan, you'll see without a doubt that the company « Desjardins Assurance » consider that the borrower (« emprunteur ») « ERIC BLACKBURN » is not the same « Person » as « Eric Blackburn » the insured (« assuré »); just follow the yellow highlighted lines shown.

But if it is not enough to shake your foundations of your reality and brings you back to life, look at the judgment⁸ of the court of Chancery of the Divine Province (didn't know that exist), presented by Anna to expose and explain the meaning of it, again. You will recognise that « ERIC BLACKBURN » and « Eric Blackburn » are specifically used with the same syntax or typography shown in that judgment to represent two different commercial vessels. You can call it ships or cars if you want. But if you need more political details, look at this more recent letter⁹ from Anna.

What? There is two different me? Three, including me? It's a commercial fraud by false declaration. Is that what we call trinity? The father, the sun, the moon... and the holy ghost? I know, four is not « tree » and the mother concept is missing? Why has she been ghosted like that on the ancient social medias network? Is she the missing link, the living part we should claim behind our commercial identity?

Like the « One you Cannot say the Name »? Like « Barbelo », « Sofia », « Lilith » or « Marie Magdalena », who was married with « Yahoshuah », « Yeshua », « Izeus » or « Jesus »? I don't know, I simply repeat the information that explode on the internet about esoteric stuffs and the coherent synthesis I could make of it.

But why the homogeneous brotherhood disciples in the Vatican treats his girlfriend like she was a « hore »? Bros don't like how their guy behaves when she's with him? Wait, wait a minute... do you realise how completely stupid and amazingly childish all of this is as a behavior?

You are already familiar I imagine with the concept of a reputation built from all the gossips of the schoolyard? Maybe I don't know yet who the real Jesus was or if Gaïa is the name of the destroy planet Mars beyond the ice wall of the Middle Earth, but I can recognise the problem of a controlled story by someone who don't like you and offer only insults as an explanation.

Wait, wait a minute... we talk about supposedly divinely chosen « superior beings »... who act like this? Maybe It's time for them to grow up and become « real » grown man and woman...

So, here what I'm going to do; I will go find « Sofia » and have a good talk with her. I want to judge by myself if she's really that strong lonely girl every body in the classroom whisper that she sleeps with every guy she falls in love with. Maybe I'll get lucky! (It's a joke... of course I should not take advantage of the loneliness of someone; in fact, it is the opposite. But it's also not a joke, maybe I'll be the one who fall in love.)

I also wonder... if « Eve » (palindrome) was made from « Adam » rib's, do you realise that she's also genetically a male? A Male disguise as a Female? So, « Eve » is the first transgender? Or maybe it is « Adam » who could be seen as the « Madam » (palindrome)?

Is there a link with this peculiar practice of gender inversion of the elite circle powers with their families and the creepy « transgender - drag queen - woke » political agenda that appear from nowhere and was push in plain sight as a diversion all around the world since 2020?

Maybe « Adam » and « Eve » are not my original parents after all, but theirs? Made by the « Elohim »? The « Shining ones »? Who knows...

Wait, I'm serious, that's exactly the problem we have to resolve. They ate the fruit of knowledge and we don't know nothing anymore... how strange it is? Who are the ones who really know as a matter of fact, be able to prove it and could tell me right away without a « foo » « king » lie or a contradiction in it that I will find sooner or later? If you are not able to do that, don't brag about it, you have been advised. The path to become that man, it's not a choice anymore.

So first of all, who are the famous « They » responsible for our obvious corrupted political reality we live in at the time; no doubt about that, it's not even a question. Whatever powerful they are, their pope color, their back wings or the part of the universe they come from, I don't care; because it doesn't change the principles; did we hire them or not? Did they interfere without permission in our development or not? What is my responsibility in all of it? Was I already created and there before; because it is said that they married the daughters of man already there?

Are we globally run by a military custodian authority and his industrial complex that create a war each year because they fail the audit of explaining where's the taxpayer's money went? But on the other hand, are very efficient with that robbed money to prevent us from visiting the North Pole on vacation and explore Hyperborea with this huge « Black Rock » mountain responsible for the Earth electromagnetic field, the goldy land of Avila that could instantly recharge our bank account or the land of our giant ancestors that are now petrified?

Also prohibiting in the same fashion the trespass of Antarctica limits, the only place where the different flag « Nations » of the world are at peace, where the ice and snow life environment deserve a more critical protection, manage by the « Free Mason Jewsuit Scientifics » because they have founded a lodge during their first expedition in the region, under the gaze of the Night's Watch that use the catch-phrase « Winter is coming » to frighten and push back every navigator or pilot who reach the « Ice Wall » by using a flat Earth map to go across « Sirius A » and « Sirius B » with some respect to the no Earth movement detected result of the « Michelson-Morley » experiment and the firmament of some sort needed to pressurized the atmosphere against a space vacuum or the waters above that could explain why « NASA » is « Not A Space Agency » but an anagram of « SATAN minus T » said for no other reason at all in their shuttle lift up countdown; because they are the deceivers, the liars and the adversaries of mankind that will invert everything to confuse you, even the sex of their own biological abused child that you see in « Disney » and « Hollywood » movies for the control and sexualization of the next generation? (Wait I'm taking a breath... it's like signing the song of « Billy Joel » « We didn't start the fire », same story with different words...)

So, whatever the part of the galaxy you come from, why would we accept that the worst behavior has to be reward in first place? Does the mob voting idiocracy make it more acceptable, more bearable? Did we really need to repeat ten thousand times the same life experiences to understand the meaning and the consequences of a moral compass? Was it consensual or was I a prisoner, a slave, a collateral damage of a cosmic political corruption that brings a plasma war in Heaven to begin with? Ok... so Heaven exists finally... And how many boxes in a box should I add to it?

Or maybe I am in a Correction Center to be rehabilitate for a cosmic crime committed that I have no memory of; as for the trial, the verdict and the penalty? In that case, why everything is done to avoid the recognition of the living man, eric blackburn, from Alma, Lac-St-Jean, Quebec, planet Earth? Why prevent the fulfillment of his simple potential? It could also sound like I was falsely imprisoned and the universe struggle about telling me because my forgiveness is at stake?

What a stupid question, you might say! Of course you're a living man, who wouldn't recognize that or want you to be?

Well, you are more then welcome to help me draw a baseline agreement on that. Very easy to do, you simply take a pencil and a sheet of paper and you write as I did to the same 72 entities¹⁰ like the Bank of Canada, the Catholic Archdiocese of Montreal, the U.S. Embassy (British) in Canada, the General Governors of Canada and of Quebec, Revenue Canada, Revenue Quebec, the electric service company Hydro Quebec, my financial cooperative Desjardins, the administrative housing court of Quebec, the White Collars Syndicate of the city of Montreal and so on. Ask them why they didn't answer¹¹ my questions by saying like you: « Of course you are a living man, what an obvious fact! »

And the questions were not difficult to understand: “Are you doing business with a living man, yes or no? What kind of organisation are you representing and in what jurisdiction are you operating?” That's why I documented the process, to establish publicly without a doubt that the absurdity comes in fact from the way they respond.

Their answers testify the behavior of hiding things and not caring about their public obligations and responsibilities to give a correct and precise explanation about their roles and their doings; they don't know what they are anymore but it doesn't matter, it pays the bills and that's enough for them. And that's the real answer I was seeking for, because that's all we need to know or to prove. The blinds lead by the blinds.

I knew what their reaction would be. I recall my experience as a « human resources office clerk » for the « Corporate City of Montreal »¹² and I was not the first to do that; long before me, all over the world, giants have concretely challenged this corrupt system. Anna is a strong example of that.

But now that my cases are made¹³, I need support to sue them and force the return under my command of all the « Public Trusts » and usufruct related to me and my family. How I do that? That's why I need to know more about the prosperity centers, the Global Family Banks, the Private Registered Indemnity Bond AMRI 00001 RA RA 395-427-640 US or Indemnity Bond AMRI 0001 RA 390 427 640 US or the UCc-1 courts in the new air jurisdiction « Space » and the people who amazingly build all of this.

I know how strange I become in the past ten years for my entourage and my family; I was the first to notice (laughs). But my focus never changes in reality, I simply react naturally against this organized corruption that I could not tolerate anymore and that I have to deal with in priority. That was the first part of the mission; like a mathematician, make the proof that no one could question.

My awareness about those things was not by chances though; my hole life¹⁴ was a constant confrontation with this ineffective world, but I was brought to think and accept that the corruption behind it exists only by accident, by hazard, nothing personal...

Until that final mistake in 2020, which made us realize that the criminals were not simply killing each other; they were openly threatening us and our children without the slightest fear, because they held the political reins of power to decide our fate. That was the wake-up call I needed to finally act to correct the situation.

And like you, for sure if you are reading this, I was force push in this fast-learning economical-political-spiritual global war or process to make me realize how controlled and ignorant on purpose I was in this world.

So, I paid more attention to the forces influencing me and the hard work of these kind-hearted people who suffered for many years to make available more coherent, but disturbing explanations of our world. They fought to keep and release the information freely, build alternatives and wanting us to wake up before we go-go like a yo-yo contrary to those who play that game.

And I begin to observe like many the synchronicities around me and some strange phenomena like this seemingly « Zeppelin Strech Metallic Cylinder » passing through the cloud in February 2021 while I was skating on a Friday night; worthy of being mentioned in Charles Fort's work "The Book of the Damned". Just as much as this common observation at night that the sky of Montreal is constantly swept by the same kind of drones or small planes flying at a very low altitude.

And of course, the intensification of the daily geo-engineering-chemtrails¹⁵ with the deployment of the 5G technologies and so on that seems to modulate the tinnitus and the deafening problem that I developed in the past ten years. Some will say that it is because the « Monad » communicates with me now. Maybe both.

But I was smart enough to know that if an authority figure or anyone else had lied to me once, they could do it again; and that's how my authority overcome theirs with no respect or trust left anymore. Especially if they dispose of that kind of means and if after that, they went on to tell me how special I am and how much they love me instead of offering a sincere apology and making amends.

It is condescending to talk to me like I was a dumb child, saying « Dear One », « Love One » or « Chosen One » every three sentences to keep me listening and subscribing to an authority that, despite its high degree of evolution, is not able to give me precise answers or to project in my 3D reality, the exact image of the complicate hypercube that I could bear to see right now; not after the next three full moons big shifts of the « Schumann Resonance », the next « Kali Yuga » cycle or the end of my « Solar Initiation » that will allow me to talk with my « Supramental Luciferian Cosmic Double », my « T-win » flames or to the « Space Force Command Center of the Federation Galactic Alliance » (not to confuse with the « Galactic Confederation » that maybe is out of business like the « American » one) and my Starseed family's the Andromedans, the Pleiadians, the Syrians, the Arcturians, the Lemurians, the Lyrians and probably some Dracos too; giving an appointment each two weeks of the month for an appearance or a cataclysmic event and never respect it.

Not much helping if you make me yearn about a future-past where I will light my campfire with my Chi or be able to heal myself by changing my vibration at will while I'm becoming more and more physically weakened no matter what I try...

Telling me that it's all the fault of the Reptilians, the Greys, the Demiurge and the Archons on the Astral plane dimension where I should be able to enter at will by now to bring information about any truth that I'm looking for in the section AB-0123456789 of the akashic records... or registers, it depends on the jurisdiction there too.

And all of that, only if I decalcified my pineal gland in a world where, if you are logical; it's almost impossible to do it because foods are strangely not organic anymore or not affordable if it is; and our environment still present the same level of pollution at the root of it.

Repeating that I should keep my vibrations at the better and higher frequency of my 6th E string guitar instead of the lower first one that is not good enough to embrace the 5D dimensions of my new consciousness to activate my 12 strands DNA of my Dragon Blue Blood heritage without telling me first what do you mean by frequency, vibration or a chord.

You have to understand that my grand-parent's generation in the 1940's and my parents one in 1980's had the same kind of emulation events with the same recurrent narratives; not new material here, the same psychological patterns and traps to scatter our focus. The question is, who are responsible for this?

So, how do I process the amazing work of Anna and the peoples she works with and my total alignment with them to explain the « Fraud on Identity », the reactivation of what is the original or continental « American Government », the « Global Family Banks » and the « Heritage Dollar » as a simple and elegant solution to take back our powers from the Banksters?

In the same time, what about my impressive synchronization with the number 17th? or maybe it is the « Queen » or the « Lost Gospel Source » used by « Matthew » and « Luke » (not « Mark ») with this amazing operation behind the « Q clock 2025 deadline » for a movie scripted put in place for the divulgations and the liberation of humanity by a « Civil and Military Alliance » with « Patriots », « Anons » and the « Federation Galactic » through a « New Space Force Army » that has the dirty task to clean the « Dumbs of the Deep State Banksters » and bring the « Nesara/Gesara Quantum Financial GITMO System » and to release all the technologies kept hidden from us like the « Free Energy », the « Medbed », the « Portal Transportations » and the reality of the others worlds? To finally see the end of the child and human trafficking of the « Satanic Pedophilic Kabbala » as predicted with the « Bluebeam Project » revealed by « Serge Monast » in the 1990's, the « Emergency Broadcast System » to expose the truth and the big arrests and judgements already rendered by military tribunals.

Both approaches could have been put in place together to complete each other; because some people prefer to see and some needs to listen and sometime, you simply need to be saved like myself at 18th months old because I felt in a swimming pool at spring time without having learn yet how to swim or how to breathe under water. What shakes my father to react? My name was shouted in his head like an electro-shock.

But like I narrate to my daughters in the « Conspiracy of the Santa Claus and the Magic Key »¹⁶, at one time or another, you have to be able to perceive the intention of a storyteller; even if it is me, their favorite and unique father. They just have to observe if I say what I do and do what I say.

The truth teller uses the story to make you discover the origin of it and will happily answer any questions with pleasure at the end while the lie teller will keep running a never-ending story to misdirect you, to keep the secret, to make you forget about the origin or about the fact that the garbage man is doing one of the most important jobs in the universe.

And my opinion is irrelevant, not worth of a fight in this mindset state; I simply need to access the correct information or apply the correct formula so I could say: that's it and that's all. That's why I answered like I did when my youngest daughter asked me about her elementary school question, what is a « Triangular Number¹⁷ ». I don't remember by hearth the formula that I found but I know by now that the scripture of any chosen natural number allows us to calculate the sum of every number coming before it, that's it and that's all.

So, don't go on your favorite TV shows to stupidly assert: "oh! my goodness, this guy is a conspiracy theorist." Of course I am, why; « are you not »? I am a seeker of the universal formulas and patterns against my ignorance.

Instead, stop wasting our time by making a fool of yourself and do the work of calculating with a pencil the sum of every number until 1000; and if you get a different answer, you have to tell me; I will correct my not intentional mistake, say thank you for your time and let every one notice that you found a better way to calculate it.

Every idea on a subject that I know nothing about and that is brought to my attention by someone else will define my thoughts on it in first place. It is not wrong or right, it is. First time I receive the signal. In that case, I have to be able to recognize if the signal is complete or corrupted, knowing when I am reflecting or repeating it; subject to manipulation or influence, in a good or in a bad way. A good question to ask, why my knowing should depend on someone else authority? Especially if this someone else tell you who you are, define what you do and don't want you to know.

Debate is pointless when you know or when you just want to know? The choice becomes an illusion, a game or a lie. If you know what to choose, why choosing something else? If you say that you want to go home but each time, you turn right or left to avoid the road that bring you there; what could I say? There's a problem here, don't try to convince me otherwise.

Obviously, the path to your home should be known to me or; by observation, I should be able to deduce that it takes you much more time than usual to complete the foreseen distance. This last ability is sometimes heightened when someone you love is cheating on you and you begin to notice it. But what if we both don't know where is the « Stairway to Heaven » or if it is intentionally block to create also the choice of the « Highway to Hell »? Interesting, isn't it?

For example, if your « New Political Awakens Medias » or your « Spiritual Guide » are not willing to talk to you about this specific « Fact »; voluntary define here as the « Fantom Act » or the « Quantum Materialisation Of The Spiritual Planes Measurement » of our « Identity Theft » put in place by the « Political and Economical Powers » to enslave us in the « Maritime Jurisdiction »... of course without our consent or show me the contract... there's a problem here, don't try to convince me otherwise.

That's the definition of a controller or a filter; for a reason, they restrict you to go back all the way to the source to connect all the dots. So, I'm not interested in any of your « New Old Spiritual Guidance » or your « New Abilities » whatsoever if you still want me or you to pay our taxes and vote the same way we always did and do nothing about it.

Why? Easy one, coherence. I have to start where I am and where I act with awareness, resolve the problem and confront what or who shackle me there. It's not a criticism; it's the baseline we should investigate without restriction or fear because there is a psychological pattern behind that, the flee.

We cannot ask for justice by keeping and using the same corrupted « Banks, Tribunals and Political Systems » controlled by those who agreed in first place to steal from us. The conflict of interest is obvious. We need to use or build something else, something independent in a more cosmical intelligent way and clean the house. That's it and that's all.

So; what's the plan? The plan is always the same, be intelligent, no need to be worship, get access to knowledge, declare publicly who or what you are and in what capacity you act, no corruption, no theft, a lot of love and humor and we manage our time and our energy as autonomous beings to create with peace and harmony to sustain life equilibrium and justice for all of us, no more fake scarcity to enslave us with the lack of money :

« Serve what deserve and deserve what serve »
(I put it there because it's sounds like a cool summary!)

That's why we gather and get rid of the corrupted « Corporate Political Banking World Governments », their « Presidents », their « Attorneys » and knock at the doors of the « Masters of Puppets » to be sure that justice has been served.

By now, all « Public Authorities » will have to answer to mankind... we were polite, patient and respectful; but every one from the smallest to the biggest will have to know the answer and the implications for them of that simple question:

« Are you one of those beings who want to enslave others in a form or another, including themselves by doing it, yes or no? »

Be aware of your responsibilities, justice had been called; it's like a burning flame inside of us... we are the garbage man of our own world now... The « real » or « royal » hearth of sovereignty.
(That's almost what I meant when I said « bravo » to my daughters when each succeed to go to the bathroom for the first time alone.)

So written by a « Man Who Was Nothing »...

But hear or here my voice as a living man...
